

Sean and Chrissy Cortez-Mathis – Creatures in the Garden

Description: Join North Texas Master Naturalists Sean and Chrissy Cortez-Mathis for a fun talk about the different critters that call their suburban garden home. Creating a biodiverse and sustainable landscape promotes habitat for many species. Come learn how you can transition your yard into an oasis in the city.

About the Speakers: Sean and Chrissy joined the North Texas Master Naturalists in 2020. Their property has been on many garden tours, including the City of Dallas Waterwise Landscape tour in 2012. Their front yard is always open to visitors who are looking for inspiration or to just wander through the pathways.
