

Monica Morrison - Mountain Lions and Ocelots: A Turning Point

Description: Recently, history has been made for both mountain lions and ocelots in Texas. Mountain lions, a threatened/imperiled species as classified by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department (TPWD), and ocelots, an endangered species, now face a future of remarkable and positive change. Learn what has transpired for both of these amazing, beautiful cats and what lies ahead.

About the Speaker: Monica got her start with wildlife more than 20 years ago. In 2017, she founded Texas Native Cats, which provides education, outreach, and advocacy for Texas' five species of wild cats, past and present. Texas Native Cats' overriding goal is to educate Texans about the diversity of our wild felines, the benefits they provide us, and the threats they endure.
