

Paula Selzer has been a photographer for more than 40 years. She holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from SMU and a Master of Public Policy from Rutgers University. Paula's landscape and bird photography and her mixed media work has been exhibited in galleries in several states. She is a Master Gardener in New Mexico, a birder, and the author of Adolphe Gouhenant: French Revolutionary, Utopian Leader, Texas Frontier Photographer. She recently retired from the Environmental Protection Agency and now spends most of her time exploring nature.